sharing experience from the ground up

Our purpose is to champion social change. We pioneer new ideas and new ways of working locally and share the learning nationally with practitioners and policy makers.

Community Links

Community Links is an innovative charity running community-based projects in east London. Founded in 1977, we now help over 53,000 vulnerable children, young people and adults every year, with most of our work delivered in Newham, one of the poorest boroughs in Europe. Our successes influence both community-based organisations across the UK and government policy. In 2004 Community Links created We Are What We Do, a new international movement which inspires people to use their everyday actions to change the world.

We offer:

Consultancy from the ground up

Practitioner-led consultancy services, delivered by skilled staff with practical knowledge and a day-to-day understanding of the challenges of working in deprived communities.

Public Service Innovation and Policy from the ground up

Our What if...? team, harnesses the wealth of knowledge that exists in communities to enhance the delivery of local public services and to influence national policy-making.

Publications from the ground up

A programme of publications, including Ideas Annuals, Evidence Papers and 'How to' Guides, sharing the learning from our pioneering work in east London.

Training from the ground up

Bespoke training programmes delivered by experienced community practitioners that will support individuals and organisations to extend their understanding and develop their skills.

Voices from the ground up

Powerful presentations from those who understand the problems best.
